World Bank Cumulative Lending for ECD: More than $1.6 billion over 15 years

By Region 1990-2005 (in US$ million)

The World Bank's ECD projects in collaboration with Governments, increasingly, concentrate on integrated programs to address intersecting needs of women and children

Early Child Development

- Mothers' parenting skills, educating caregivers
- Direct service to young children - non-formal child development services
- Build public awareness and strengthen demand
